

MOKENA BOARD LOOKS TO FUTURE OF VILLAGE

Ask Public To Join In Conference On Schools

The "Little White House Conference on Education" in the Lincoln-Way high school area is to be held tonight, June 16, at 8 o'clock in the high school.

A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of Lincoln-Way, chairman of the conference for this area, sent out announcements of the meeting last week to parents and friends of the schools, and those in charge hope for a large turnout.

Between June 6 and June 17 scores of such meetings have been or will be held in Illinois to provide recommendations and data for presentation at the White House conference at Washington next November.

Chapman Chairman

Supt. Chapman was appointed chairman of the Lincoln-Way conference by County Superintendent Verne Crackel. In turn Supt. Chapman appointed the principals of the four village grade schools to assist him - John Oster, of New Lenox; Mrs. Elizabeth Capple, of Mokena; Miss Viola Lankenau, of Frankfort and Miss Ann McDonald, of Manhattan.

The public is invited and Supt. Chapman urges a large attendance.

The six main topics for discussion are:

1. What should our schools accomplish?
2. In what ways can we organize our school systems more efficiently and economically?
3. What are our school building needs?
4. How can we get enough good teachers and keep them?
5. How can we finance our schools - build and operate them?
6. How can we obtain a continuing public interest in education?

Mokena Gives $449 To Combat Cancer

The fund-raising campaign of the American Cancer society in Will county and nearby communities went over the top by more than $1,000, campaign chairman Henry Shering reports. A total of $21,405 was collected in this area, he said.

Families and business firms in Mokena contributed $449 to the total collected. Heading the 1955 Cancer society crusade in the Mokena area were Mrs. Fred Ricketts, Mrs. Ralph Harwell and Mrs. Herbert Wrath.

COMMUNITY WORKS TOGETHER, BUILD UP FACILITIES OF PARK

The Mokena Community park board has had cooperation from everyone this season except the weatherman. The fall-like temperatures and steady rains that have marked the month to date have combined to curtail use of the park and its facilities, but they are ready.

Members of the park board at their meeting last week expressed their deep appreciation of the aid given by various organizations and individuals in providing improvements in the park. Kenneth Sherwood, representing the Mokena Village Players, gave a $500 check to the board last week to be used for any project the board may choose. This was money earned by the players with their productions which they give twice a year.

The board was grateful for this donation, just as it is for all contributions, large or small, and whether of money, labor or material.

The list of donors is a long one. The men who gave of their time, labor, machinery and material to build the ball diamonds, backstops and bleachers, are Everett Creer, Edwin Yunker, Clyde Yunker, George Bennett, Harold Schmidt, George Heinhlein, Jack Nordsell, Walter Hennrich, Alvin Sorenson, Robert Niemann, Glenn Meirs, Henry Clark, Clarence Lauffer, J. Herbert Wrath, Delbert Yunker, Ray Doner, Wilbert Lauffer and Roy Kropp. The Chamber of Commerce picked up the tab for the material for the bleachers.

Blaine Saxton gave his time and machinery to lay a water line that runs to the ball diamonds, to connect with a fountain. Erwin Friant also worked on this project.

A crew also cleared the picnic area and set up seven new tables. This detail was made up of Harley Mann, Louis Stelter, George Swanberg, Charles Swanberg, George Devlin, Everett Creer, Stanley Williams, Arthur

NATIVE SON TO SPEAK AT GREEN GARDEN CHURCH

Most of the feeding value of hay is in the leaves.

Ohmlund and several of them pressed their sons into service also.

The volleyball court material was donated by Mayor John Scarth and was set up by Meirs and Wrath. Norvil Robinson has donated a building which is to be moved to the park to house the equipment to be used in the summer playground program of which Mr. Wrath is in charge.

Morris S. Grinbarg, formerly of the teaching staff of Lincoln-Way high, has volunteered to design and draw up plans for an entrance to the park.

Charles Swanberg has appointed Ray Hoohehan, T. Arthur Shoop, Gerritt Swart and Henry Clerk, as a committee to arrange for parking. They are to stake off an area for this purpose and motorists using the area are asked not to drive beyond the stakes.

The park and its facilities are for everyone, it was stressed by the board. A number of picnics have been held in the park, and any groups planning large affairs of this nature are advised to check with Mr. Wrath - he is to be reached by phone at 5143 - or to arrange for use of the recreation grounds.

Garbage and rubbish containers have been installed and persons using the park are asked to make use of them in order to keep the grounds clean. Sanitary facilities have been installed. Three stationary stoves have been ordered, for the use of those who like to cook their suppers in the open.

Members of the park board at last week's meeting were: Charles Swanberg, Harley Mann, Gerritt Swart, Ray Hoohehan, Clarence Lauffer, Henry Clark, Mrs. T. Arthur Shoop, Mrs. Hugo Niethammer, Mrs. George H. Bills, Mr. T. Arthur Shoop, Kenneth Sherwood, and Norvil Robinson.

Hold Funeral Rites For Irvin Marti At Friendship, Wis.

Last rites for Irvin Marti who died suddenly last Thursday, were held Sunday at Friendship, Wis., where Mr. Marti had been residing for the past nine years.

He was 60 years old and a former resident of Mokena. Mr. Marti was born in Mokena and for many years operated a dairy here. Since moving to Wisconsin he had been farming.

Besides his widow, Gertrude, Mr. Marti is survived by two sons, Bruce and Dale; three daughters, Mrs. Louis Armstrong and Mrs. John Blake, of Friendship, and Mrs. Chester Corney of Frankfort; three brothers, George of Mokena, Frank of Monee, and Alvin of Arkdale, Wis., and two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Crate and Mrs. Catherine Crate also of Arkdale.

COUNTY PUTS O.K. ON BRIDGE

An act by the county board of interest to New Lenox and Mokena residents was the approval of two resolutions pertaining to improvements on the north and south road just east of the Lincoln-Way high school which connects Route 30 and Francis road.

On recommendation of the good roads committee headed by Dr. C. M. Faulkner of Manhattan, the board voted to set aside $70,000 for a bridge over Hickory creek on this road. The present span has collapsed. The board also voted $75,000 for construction of a base for this road, which has been designated a state aid route.

Eventually, it is said, it is the plan to blacktop this stretch between Route 30 and Francis road. It will provide a safer bus route from Mokena to Lincoln-Way high. This road passes under the Rock Island tracks, so a grade crossing would be eliminated. Buses traveling this route also would escape the hazards of the heavy truck and high speed traffic on Rt. 30.

Mokena also is waiting, not so patiently, but more hopefully for the blacktopping of Francis road from Gougar road to Wolf road. A contract for the base of the first link, between Gougar and the Cedar road at New Lenox, has been awarded. Next year the board may let a contract for the base between Cedar and Wolf roads. It was reported.

Hold Rites For Daniel Wabul, Crash Victim

Funeral services are to be held today at St. Cajetan church in Chicago for 22 year old Daniel T. Wabul who was fatally injured in a crash involving four cars Monday afternoon on Route 7 near the lumber yard east of Lockport.

The victim, who on Monday completed his third year at Lewis college, resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wabul at 154th ave. and the Will-Cook Rd. He was enroute home when his car was struck head on by a west bound auto driven by Loren Aspel, 53, of Lockport. Aspel's car was thrown into the path of Wabul's car as a result of having been hit from behind by a car driven by Raymond Schade, 30 also of Lockport. Schade, whom state police were unable to contact for several hours after the crash, was given an arrest ticket by State Officer Loyal Salvards charging him with following a car too closely and is scheduled to appear before Justice of the Peace Arthur Stuppy in Lockport Saturday.

Aspel, a teacher at Kelly high school in Chicago, was accompanied by two fellow teachers, Raymond Worst, 53, and Walter Nelson, 50. All reside in Lockport and all were taken to Silver Cross hospital in Joliet after the accident. Aspel has a broken left hip and wrist, and Worst has fractures of the left ankle and right arm and a chin cut that required 20 stitches. Nelson was at first thought to have a possible skull fracture but he has improved greatly and was scheduled to leave the hospital.

A fourth car driven by Tillman McCollum of Lockport township was following Wabul. McCollum was able to stop in time to prevent piling into the tangle of cars but his auto was damaged by flying metal parts from the wreck.

Coroner Willard G. Blood does not expect to hold the inquest into Wabul's death until the injured are able to testify. Wabul's father works in the postoffice in Chicago.

Young Wabul and Don Bereman, of Mokena, had made plans this summer to do construction work in the area.

Local Scoutmaster Completes Training

Any person or groups interested in taking the junior, standard or advanced Red Cross first aid courses, should contact Omland or the American Red Cross office in Joliet.

PROMOTED

BAND BOOSTERS PUSH DANCE TICKET SALE

The Lincoln-Way high school Band Boosters association together with the boys and girls that make up the band are making a final effort this week in behalf of the dance they are to have Saturday night, June 18, in the school gymnasium.

A large crowd is desired and Booster members are carrying on an intensive ticket selling campaign. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the band or the Boosters association or may be had at the door Saturday night.

Lincoln-Way school gym will be the setting for the dance and a popular orchestra has been engaged for the affair.

Need Uniforms

The reason why the Boosters are so eager to have a large ticket sale is that it is necessary to raise a considerable sum of money. The money is needed to purchase uniforms for the band.

The band, under the direction of Robert Taylor, is building up quite a reputation for its music but to appear in the various contests and at public affairs the band should be dressed in uniforms.

It is estimated that the uniforms will cost approximately $50 each. The present membership in the band is 40 but it will grow rapidly so the Boosters are planning on buying 60 uniforms. This will meet additional demands created thru growth of the band and also take care of changes in the measurements of the youngsters.

Dancing 9 to 12

The dance Saturday night is to begin at 9 o'clock and run until midnight.

Wilbur A. Francis, of Manhattan, is head of the Band Boosters and Mrs. Patrick Guzik of Frankfort is vice president with Mrs. Esther Batson, of Manhattan as secretary and Ray Culison of New Lenox, treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ulrich of New Lenox head the ways and means committee which is sponsoring the campaigns to raise money for the uniform fund.

The association wants to have the band uniformed next fall.

More than 100 Champaign county farm tractors will be studied for care and maintenance as a result of a $15,000 grant made by the Illinois Farm Supply Company.

ONE CAN READILY IMAGINE THAT THESE MOSQUITOES ARE ANNOYING

In the time of—hey, you, hats off—Davy Crockett, and for many years thereafter when one went traveling his shooting arms were always a part of his costume, the most important part. They not only protected man against the fauna—some of which was mighty dangerous—but also against men who were even more dangerous.

They were also the means of supplying one with food and clothing.

But for many years now—with the highways dotted with hamburger, hot dog and fried chicken places and the country side rapidly filling with prefab houses so that it is becoming difficult for anything larger than gophers or squirrels to find cover, there is no need to carry firearms to obtain food or protect one against animals. Of course, man is still dangerous but does most of his killing now with automobiles and a gun is little protection against those things.

But anyone going south at this time, particularly if they are bound for Biloxi, New Orleans or any other place along the Gulf are advised to carry shotguns, smudge pots, and a variety of making Greek fire wouldn't come amiss either, according to the Don C. Halls, formerly of Mokena, who now reside in Biloxi.

There are no loose lions, leopards, tigers, wolves or bears in the area and at the moment no trigger-happy bandits on the prowl, but the mosquitoes are something fierce!

They come up in clouds—by the trillion—from the swamps and bays and have practically taken over every community. The Halls sent clippings along with letters telling of the scourge the Gulf dwellers are facing.

Ordinary spray guns are said to be useless. In fact they are said to be dangerous to the user because the mosquitoes grab them and turn them on the humans.

The people of Biloxi are accustomed to handling large shrimp—Biloxi shrimp being

Asks Citizens Groups To Study 3-Phase Plan

NAME HEADS OF HOMECOMING COMMITTEES

The Mokena Homecoming committee is meeting every Wednesday night now. Homecoming, Aug. 19, 20 and 21 is only 11 weeks away and there is much work to be done.

This year's Homecoming has two chairmen, Norval Robinson representing the Mokena Lions, and Stan Williams, representing the Mokena Civic Association. The co-chairmen have announced the following appointments to the general committee:

Charles Swanberg, grounds chairman; Harley Mann, tickets; Fred Lehmann, finance chairman; Virginia and Kenneth Sherwood, games chairman; Marion Owen and George Carlisle, co-chairmen refreshments and Tom Everhart, parade chairman; Marcella Lehmann, publicity chairman.

Additional information concerning the Homecoming will be announced from time to time.

Lay Cornerstone Of St. Mary's Sunday

The cornerstone for St. Mary's new church, being built at 195 st. and 115th ave., Mokena, will be laid at 3 o'clock this Sunday afternoon, June 19. Father Pius Barth, Franciscan Provincial of St. Louis Province, will officiate. Other visiting dignitaries will participate in the ceremony, which will mark another milestone in the spiritual life of the community.

There will be a procession from St. Mary's hall to the new church location. Taking part in the procession will be school children, members of the Keen-Teen club, the Sacred Heart League, and the Holy Name Society.

Father Cecil Koop, pastor of St. Mary's, invites everyone to be present at the ceremony.

recognized as a delicacy through out the country—but then shrimp don't fly. The mosquitoes—the baby ones that is—are said to be larger than the largest of shrimps.

Some of the squadrons of mosquitoes appearing over the Gulf have caused false alarms, so that Chamber of Commerce choral groups thinking them to be sails, have marched down to the wharves singing that old chantey of the airways, "The Shrimp Boats are Coming."

A newspaper clipping sent to Mokena by the Halls tells of two mosquitoes picking up a man in downtown Biloxi and carrying him out to picnic ground where a flock of skeeters were having a reunion.

May Need Buckshot

The mosquitoes appear to be well organized and at this particular picnic for instance, while some of them were bringing men, women and children to the grounds, others were carrying in jugs and demijons of DDT and other spray mixtures which they drink like so much gin or bourbon. The stuff intoxicates them and persons who have had the experience say there is no reasoning with a drunken mosquito.

Few persons in the area venture forth unless armed with a shotgun and smudge pot. Ten and 12 gauge guns are best it is said, and No. 5 shot is recommended also in some districts some people use No. 4 and there are times when the mosquitoes are so large that nothing less than double-O buckshot will faze them. The smudge pots are used to produce sufficient smoke to hide a person from the mosquitoes while re-loading his gun.

At first the local government sought to spur the killing off of mosquitoes by paying a bounty of five cents a gallon for dead ones, but had to stop because of the heavy drain on the treasuries when it was found it took only one skeeter to fill a bucket.

Current as well as future needs of Mokena and the surrounding area are to form the basis of a study to be made by citizen groups vitally concerned with all problems touching the community.

Toward this end a special meeting of the Mokena board of trustees was held Monday night in the village school, with Mayor John Scarth presiding.

The mayor, who has been doing considerable studying of problems rising from the growth of the community, spent most of Monday with the Chicago regional planning authorities discussing them.

Mokena's problems are not uncommon. Many of the communities similar in size and population and area, and experiencing a steady growth, are met with the same problems.

The meeting at the school Monday night was concerned with Mokena's future and the best means of planning for it.

Endorse Recommendations

The persons present were sincerely interested in the purpose and all pledged to cooperate with the village board in working out things to the best interests of the community and its people.

Endorsement was given Mayor Scarth's recommendations that the planning cover three phases:

1. A study of sanitary systems for the village proper, with special attention given to its probable extension into the surrounding area.
2. A study of the water system with a view of completing mains where needed in the village, plus possible extension.
3. A study of building and zoning ordinances with a view of strengthening and correcting existing measures; also to set up definite controls over types of construction in outlying subdivisions.

To Get Map

It was pointed out in connection with the question of zoning that the village board not only has control over regulations governing street and lot widths, sidewalks and other features of subdivisions that lie beyond the corporate limits for a mile and a half distance but it can also set up standards for construction.

One of the first things to be done, it was agreed, was to obtain a large scale map of the village of Mokena and environs extending for a mile and half radius. Such a map is to be drawn by the engineering firm headed by Max C. Seiberling.

This map will be of inestimable value to the committees that carry on with the studies outlined above. These committees will be organized later. It is expected that the committees will be chosen and begin their work next month, following the next regular meeting of the village board.

Mayor Scarth expressed himself as grateful for the interest exhibited in the community's problems and the spirit of co-operation demonstrated at Monday night's meeting.

"In behalf of the village board and myself," said Mayor Scarth, "we wish to say that each and every property owner in the village will have a full opportunity to study all the facts. At present it is necessary to keep the group small. However, we intend to give everyone genuinely interested in the future of Mokena an opportunity to help us arrive at a decision of what is best for us and best for Mokena."

PLAN VOTE ON WHEAT JUNE 23

Chairman Roy M. Smith of the Will county agricultural stabilization and conservation committee has designated two voting places in Will county for the wheat referendum to be held June 25.

Here are the places where the eligible wheat growers of the county will indicate whether or not they want the wheat marketing quota program to continue in operation for the 1956 crop: Ritchie Town Hall is the polling place for the following townships: Custer, Florence, Washington, Wesley, Wilmington, Wilton, Will, Peotone and Reed.

The following townships are to vote at the Will county office—564 Chicago st., Joliet: Channahon, Crete, DuPage, Frankfort, Green Garden, Homer, Jackson, Joliet, Lockport, Manhattan, Monee, New Lenox, Plainfield, Troy and Wheatland. Wheat growers have already been notified of their wheat acreage allotments. All wheat producers who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest in 1956 are eligible to vote. The marketing quota program does not affect those who will have 15 acres or less of wheat for harvest in 1956.

If two-thirds of more of the nation's wheat growers voting in the referendum approve, marketing quotas will continue in effect for the 1956 crop. This will mean that price support will be available to those who stay within their farm's wheat acreage allotment. Those who exceed the larger of the farm allotment or 15 acres will be subject to a penalty equal to 45 percent of parity on the excess production, and price support will not be available for any of their 1956 wheat crop.

If more than one-third of the growers voting disapprove, marketing quotas will not be in effect and price support will be available at 50 percent of parity for those farmers who stay within the wheat acreage allotment for their farms. Those who exceed their farm wheat allotments will not be eligible for price support.

GIVE TIPS ON HOW TO WAGE WAR AGAINST THESE PESKY SKEETERS

Mosquitoes that may be breeding in your own backyard or in that ditch along your front yard are the target of a four-page brochure released today by the largest mosquito abatement district in Illinois. The south Cook county mosquito abatement district enlists the cooperation of home-owners in Cook county south of 87th Street to rid their yards of all water-holding containers, to keep rain-gutters clear, and to provide for unobstructed drainage of their own premises.

A little 5% DDT goes a long way, according to the brochure.
If, for any reason, it's impossible to eliminate standing water on one's property, no more than a teaspoonful applied as directed will be ample to kill off any wrigglers in a water area the size of a 9x12 living room rug.

Where septic tanks are necessary, the district urges that they be properly constructed in the first place (and village and county health departments will concur) and that owners see to it that they continue to function properly. Polluted water from faulty septic tanks is known to be a staggeringly effective breeding source.

While the home-owner takes care of standing water on his own premises, the south Cook county mosquito abatement district uses appropriate control measures on major breeding sources. It locates thousands of potential breeding sites, assesses their nuisance potential by finding out what species of mosquitoes are present and in what numbers. It constructs or improves drainage ways, ditches and marshes. It sprays principal sources to kill the wigglers before they can develop into adults.
Finally, it attacks adult mosquitoes when appropriate. These are the major jobs that the individual home-owner can't very well do for himself. With his cooperation, however, the district aims to provide progressively happier summers for all its half million residents.

SUPER-ROADS
NO PREVENTIVE
OF ACCIDENTS

Philadelphia, June 15.—A net work of superhighways criss-crossing the country will be a boon to traffic movement but will prove incapable of reducing traffic accidents the 40 to 50 per cent that has been promised unless the program includes proper traffic law enforcement, Paul H. Blaisdell, traffic safety director of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies declares.

Mr. Blaisdell, speaking to the mid-Atlantic highway conference in session here, stated that "we do not have one single shred of evidence with our existing post-war creations in superhighways to support the promise that a better highway, alone and unaided, will greatly reduce our traffic accident experience.

Urges Tighter Control
"Instead, we have ample proof that until modern highways have the accompaniment of stepped up traffic law enforcement and tighter driver control, there is just as great a likelihood that our accident troubles will increase. The growing favorable traffic casualty record of the present turnpikes and superhighways dates only from the day that modern techniques of enforcement were applied freely, firmly and impartially."

"Reports of the states tell us that 78 percent of the fatal traffic accidents take place on straight, level roads, with the remaining 22 percent on some combination of curve, turn, grade or crest of hill. Moreover, the experience with our eastern turnpikes tells us that when the highway is engineered for safety we substitute other types of traffic accidents for the varieties common to the outmoded and more crowded highways and thus still keep the casualty toll at a high level.

Invite Greater Speed
"There can be little doubt that the straightening of sharp curves or the reduction of steep grades might help lower the 22 percent in which these highway features play a part. However, we may only be jumping from the frying pan into the fire. Improved highway designs are in the direction of a type which apparently produces more accidents rather than less. By the elimination of a curve we seem to invite greater speed. Limited access facilities seem to increase the frequency of accidents in which "following too closely," fatigue, and "running off the road" are featured.

"Plainly, I am of the opinion that the calm assumption that more and better highways will guarantee 40 to 50 percent fewer accidents is either wishful thinking or an overzealous attempt to justify the highway program. Into the total cost of highway progress we must figure the added cost of strict control if we really want safety to be a co-partner. We are not dealing with a handful of highway users or a few main roads, but with 70,000,000 drivers and 60,000,000 vehicles. Half measures and small projects will solve neither the highway problem nor the traffic accident problem."

NOT AWAKE YET

Young people of the present generation have seen communism engulf country after country. When this takes place the citizen simply loses his right to be an individual. He works, acts, thinks, breathes, and worships on the rights of states and individuals.

Socialism and communism creep upon a nation before the masses are aware of what is happening. Quite often the people vote themselves into this form of political slavery through an entire lack of understanding of what they are doing. Out of sheer weariness they give up battling the relentless pressure of powerful political forces.

It has been said over and over again that such a situation cannot happen in the United States.
But it is happening here now.
Advocates of socialized electric power started in a small way with taxpayers' money after the first world war. Today they are using billions of dollars of the taxpayers' money to blanket the United States with nine super-valley authorities. They have managed to circumvent every attempt to limit their aggression the rights of states and individuals. They escape state regulation, and state and Federal tax laws. And these tax-exempt monopolies expand, they destroy or prevent the normal growth of taxpaying private enterprise.

The true intent of the Federal power socialization program has now been made clear by the Tennessee Valley Authority. It started as an agency to furnish power as a by-product of a government flood control and navigation project. It will now spend in three years two-thirds of a billion dollars of public funds expanding its activities and building five giant steam plants to generate nearly 50% of its annual power output. It is not bothered by corporation taxes, state income taxes, public service commissions or any of the other rules and regulations that apply to the average citizen and business.

Private companies which must compete with tax-subsidized TVA power protested against building of the Johnsonville steam plant in Tennessee. Such a project is entirely contrary to the original intent of TVA. But as to four other steam projects to be built as part of the three-year, two-thirds-of-a-billion-dollar public money spending program, a top TVA official says they are surprised at the lack of opposition because "we would have a hard time justifying some of the newer plants." And right here is the danger. Officialism, with the power and privileges of government behind it, can slowly but surely wear down the resistance of the strongest people. Under the guise of giving public benefits they take away the rights of individuals and of states, first in one line of industry then in another. Socialization of electric power in the United States is the first step toward Federal socialization of other industries such as has taken place in other countries. The fact that opposition to the TVA idea is faltering is simply evidence of weakening defense against the socialistic drive.

In other words, it is "happening here" but the people are not yet awake to the danger.

OAT PROSPECTS
BEST IN YEARS

Cool weather and frequent rains from June 4 to 10 were more favorable to oats than corn. Central and northern Illinois report some of the best oats prospects in years. Oats has headed out earlier than usual, and cool, wet weather should promote excellent yields.
The eastern two thirds of Iowa and northeastern Missouri are also enthusiastic over oats prospects. However, in areas which were dry earlier—Nebraska, South Dakota, Minnesota and western Iowa—oats is heading out very short, and some has been plowed up for corn.

The corn crop is nearly all planted by June 10, with the exception of a little in southern Illinois and Indiana and scattered fields in the extreme north in Wisconsin and Minnesota, where considerable silage corn is raised. As a rule, corn is pretty much the same size all over the central and northern corn belt—averaging 8 to 10 inches in most areas. Some knee high corn is reported in Missouri, southern Illinois and Indiana on early planted fields.

The chief need of the corn crop at present is warm, sunny weather to permit cleaning out of weeds by cultivation.

Barley combining and threshing are underway in Missouri, southern Illinois and Kentucky.
Wheat combining will soon begin in these same areas.

An interesting May rainfall report of two areas only 350 miles apart is made by two De-Kalb seed corn observers. South eastern Nebraska had one of the driest, hottest Mays on record, and southwestern Missouri had the wettest May in many years, with 7 inches of rain.

Progress creates problems.
The increased use of high analysis fertilizer in the row at planting time has caused considerable burn to corn in many areas where soil was dry at planting time, according to De-Kalb crop reporters.

DISABLED CAN BENEFIT FROM
SECURITY PLAN

Seriously disabled people who used to work in employment or self-employment covered by the social security law should get in touch with the social security office by June 30, Harold Whiteside, district manager of the Social Security administration announced today.

Whiteside pointed out that people who have been totally disabled for six months or longer, and who worked in employment or self-employment covered by the social security law for as many as five years out of the 10 years before they were disabled, should get further information about this law. Active military service and employment in the railroad industry may count toward the needed amount of work. By applying to have their social security earnings frozen, disabled people may prevent loss or reduction of future benefits.

Some people now receiving old age insurance payments or who will become eligible for old age payments in July were disabled for long periods before they reached age 65 and are still disabled. They may start getting larger payments as of July and will get them more promptly if they file an application for a "disability freeze" by June 30.
If the disabled person dies after June 30, the disability freeze can protect his family's rights to survivors payments but only if he had applied for it before death. For this reason, it is important for every person who meets the requirements for the "freeze" to apply for it by June 30. Whiteside emphasized that the law protects the social security rights of a worker who is suffering from prolonged total disability but does not pay cash benefits to him before he is 65.

EXPECT 750 METHODISTS WILL ATTEND ROCK RIVER CONFERENCE

Seven hundred and fifty Methodists will meet in First church, Elgin, June 20-24 for the 116th annual session of the Rock River conference.

Since the days of John Wesley in the eighteenth century, the annual conference has been the major annual religious, business and administrative event among the Methodists. Church business is reviewed for the year past and projected into the year to come and Methodist pastors are re-assigned to their churches or given new assignments for the coming year.

Half of the delegates are ministers of the conference. The other half are lay representatives, men and women, one each from the 379 Methodist churches in Chicagoland and in the northern third of Illinois west to the Mississippi river. All communities in this area, Mokena, Frankfort, New Lenox, Orland Park and Tinley Park will be represented.

The Rev. Dr. Carleton C. Rogers, minister of first church, Elgin, is host to the conference. He has arranged the program with the assistance of the Rev. Dr. Hughes Morris, superintendent of the Rockford district, and a committee.

The conference will begin Monday afternoon, June 20, with an address of welcome by the Hon. Orlo E. Salisbury, mayor of Elgin, and chairman of the board of trustees of First church. Then will follow the organization of the conference. Bishop Charles W. Brashares, Chicago, head of the Methodists in Illinois, will preside throughout the week.

A feature of the week will be balloting for five or six ministerial and an equal number of lay delegates to the General Conference of the denomination in Minneapolis, Minn., April 25 to May 9, 1956. The number depends upon a statistical calculation now being made. Those elected and an equal number of alternates will be delegates to the conference of Methodism's North Central Jurisdictional conference in Des Moines, Iowa, in mid-July, 1956.

The week will see a number of luncheons and banquets, each organized around a major interest of the church, such as theological education, laymen's work, evangelism, and the recognition of retired ministers and their wives.

Major figures of American Protestantism will address the conference. The Rev. Robert J. McCracken of Riverside church, New York City, will speak Tuesday evening, June 21. His congregation will be the Methodist conference and the Illinois United Brethren denomination, also meeting that week in Elgin.

Wednesday evening, June 22 and Thursday evening, June 23, the speaker will be the Rev. Dr. George Buttrick, preacher to Harvard university and Plummer professor of Christian morals, former pastor of the Madison ave. Presbyterian church, New York City.

At the laymen's banquet Monday evening, June 20, speaker will be Bradshaw Mintner, Minneapolis, layman, now assistant secretary in the U. S. Department of health, education and welfare, Washington, D.C.

Last item of business Friday evening, June 24, will be the reading of pastoral appointments.

Farmers Can Sign
For A. C. Program

All farmers should now recognize that they are eligible to participate in the agricultural conservation program, even though the corn and or wheat allotment on the farm may be exceeded according to the local ASC office.

Until recent legislation was passed farmers had to be in compliance with basic allotments for 1955 in order to be eligible for assistance on limestone, waterway, pasture, and other practices offered under the AC program. Now that this requirement has been repealed, farmers previously approved for practices should go right ahead with their conservation work regardless of their allotment plans.

There are also a number of farmers who failed to sign up previously because of the allotment provision. These farmers it was suggested, may now desire to participate in the conservation program, and should understand that they can still sign up for assistance by calling at the county office.

(Funds are rather limited at this particular time it was explained but consideration will be given to each request within the limits of funds available.)

This bird-call makes a lot of sense!

2¢ worth of electricity cooks dinner in the deep-well cooker of an automatic electric range.

2¢ lets you watch 2 1/2 hours of your favorite TV shows ... million-dollar entertainment for pennies.

2¢ irons 12 sheets and 12 cases. And with an electric ironer you'll find it's twice as quick and easy.

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down

(while everything else goes up)

Nowadays most families have at least one of the electrical appliances (above). That's one reason why you're using far more electricity today than you did a few years ago. But the surprising thing is that you're getting almost twice as much of it for your money.

One of the reasons Public Service Company is able to keep your electric bill down is a new way of protecting equipment from weather. We no longer construct a costly building and install substation equipment in it. We now use a pre-fabricated, weatherproof casing.

This reduces the cost of installations and eliminates many upkeep expenses. So today, while the cost of most everything has doubled—electricity still costs less per kilowatt-hour than it did 25 years ago.

"Oh, yes, I have, miss," was the answer. "The funniest thing I ever saw was too funny for words."

"How dare you make such an accusation," a third voice cut in. "I'll have you know that I'm too busy to interest myself in other people's conversations."

2,4-D DEADLY TO TOMATOES SAY GROWERS

Commercial tomato growers and there are many of them in the area, from New Lenox to Tinley Park, are sending out an S. O. S. but you may be sure that the message is not being sent out in the form of mist made from 2,4-D spray, especially in the ester form.

That spray is what the S. O. S. is about. 2,4-D is used as a weed killer by the grain growers, and it is death to broadleaf plants. Tomatoes are broadleaf plants so when spray is used in a field here, quite a bit of it is picked up by the air and carried over yonder, where the tomatoes are growing. And there go the tomatoes.

Ester Form Deadliest

According to Vernon D. Wylie, a field representative of a soup manufacturer which has a large amount of tomatoes under contract in the area, 2,4-D in the ester form is very volatile and will carry a distance of a quarter of a mile and will float around for at least three days.

The tomato growers are asking the grain growers to please refrain from using the ester form of the spray, especially on windy days.

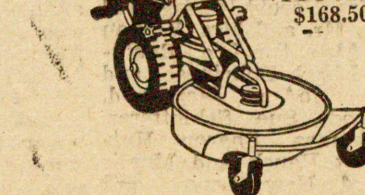

They suggest the use of the salt form of 2,4-D as less dangerous to their crops because this kind dries quickly, compared to the ester form, and after 12 hours there is no further drifting. They also suggest that spray not be used on windy days.

Mr. Wylie said that legally persons applying spray can be held responsible for any damage that results. There are hundreds of acres of tomatoes grown commercially in the area.

Christian Science Churches

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services this Sunday, June 19.

Scriptural selections from the King James Version of the Bible stress the supremacy of spiritual power and include the account of Christ Jesus feeding the multitude as recorded by Matthew (14:14-20) and John's account (6:16-21) of Jesus walking on the sea.

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (273:21-26): "God never ordained a material law to annul the spiritual law. If there were such a material law, it would oppose the supremacy of Spirit God, and impugn the wisdom of the creator. Jesus walked on the dead in direct opposition to material laws."

Says Lightning Rods Will Save Life, Property

Ninety percent of the damage done by lightning occurs in rural areas, says the Illinois rural safety council.

Each year lightning kills 360 persons, injures 900 more and causes about $18,000,000 worth of property damage in the United States.

Most of this loss is needless, says O. L. Hogsett, extension farm safety specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture. A system of lightning rods, securely fastened and well grounded will give buildings all most perfect protection.

To protect yourself from lightning, observe these few rules: When caught in an electrical storm, take cover in a building protected by lightning rods, if possible. Stay away from open windows or doors and fireplaces.

stoves, pipes and other metal objects. Lightning tends to strike the highest point in an area, so stay away from isolated buildings, towers or lone trees. If you are caught in the open during a severe storm, lie on the ground so that you won't be a target for lightning.
